*Today marks the beginning of Holy Week. We invite you to join with us throughout this week as we make the journey from the palms to the glorious resurrection. There will be special services, as you can see here, each day from now up to and including Easter Sunday. During that time we will be re-enacting the events in Jesus’ life that started with the people welcoming him to Jerusalem as a King on Palm Sunday and then shouting for His crucifixion on Good Friday. We have been observing a Holy Lent in preparation for the events of this week, please join us on the journey.

Happy Easter to you and your family. The very foundation of our Christian faith is the resurrection of our Lord from the grave that first Easter day. It is so important for us to come together, as the family of God, to celebrate that Jesus is alive, and, because He has overcome death and lives, so will we. May this Easter worship be an opportunity for all of us to celebrate the hope we share and to renew our commitment to Jesus as our Saviour!
