Theme for the camp is "Redeemer" A great week planned: a fun-filled week of Bible study, swimming, hiking, games, crafts and more! For children between the ages of 8 and 14. The kids won't want to miss this year's camp.

Holidays. Rev. Randy is on holidays for most of July. However, except for today, July 16, he will be available for the Thursday and Sunday services during the month. He is away today and Bishop Don will be doing both morning services. In case of emergency, please call Rev. Randy as most of the time he will be in the vicinity.

Closing Service at Mint Brook Camp. The service will be this coming Saturday, July 22, at 2 p.m. This will be an opportunity to visit the Camp one more time. It is a time to formally thank God for its contribution to the life and ministry of our Diocese for so many years and to formally close the Camp. We now look forward to doing diocesan ministry and programs in other ways and places. The Camp will be open on Saturday morning if any would like to come early and mingle and chat. Rain or shine the closing service will go ahead.

Lay Support Group (LSG) for Our Queen's College Intern. The Group is being put in place for September. As you know, Mrs Robyn Toal, a third year Queen's College student will be with us from early September until late November doing her internship with Rev. Randy. She will also be accompanied by her husband, Eddy, and fortunately, they have already found a short-term rental apartment. The Lay Support Group will consist of lay members of the parish who will meet with Robyn weekly to ensure all is going well during the internship. Thus far the committee consists of Linda Pafford, David L Mercer, Terry Brown and Audrey Bishop. Please keep Robyn in your prayers as she begins the final year of her training before ordination next Spring.

Annual Flower Service—August 13 at 2 p.m. As in the past, we will first visit the cemetery on Union Street, followed by a shorter service at the old cemetery on Valley Road. Should there be inclement weather, we will do the service in the church.

ACW Annual Diocesan Conference. The conference will be held September 15 – 17 in the parish of Twillingate. The theme for this year's conference is I am the Vine; You are the branches. All ladies are invited to attend.

Parish Finances. Please remember the needs of the parish over the summer months. Summer is typically a slow time for the church as people are on vacation or traveling. A few of our church members use post-dated cheques and others use the online way of giving through canadahelps.org which can be accessed by visiting the parish website.. If our parishioners can help us through regular offerings, our treasurer will be most thankful as it will make his job of meeting the financial obligations of the church much easier.

What Is the Diocese Doing at Max Simms Camp This Year? This year our Diocese is holding most of its Diocesan events at Max Simms Camp, which is just down the road from us. We hope that many in our parish will take advantage of not having to travel far and attend some of these activities, such as:

July 30 – August 5	Youth Summer Camps (Co-ed) Theme: The Redeemer
September 11 – 13	Clergy Conference
October 20 – 22	Licensed Lay Ministers Conference.
October 27 – 29	Women’s Weekend.
November 3 – 5	Men’s Weekend

Sunday School Teachers Required. Sunday School teachers will be needed for this Fall. Even though we are a few months away from starting up again, we want to get people thinking about the importance of having a Sunday School. If children no longer receive religious instruction in our schools, the church and home is so important in providing them with the tools they need to live a Christian life. It is what we have promised to do as parents and Godparents of children we bring for baptism. To provide the necessary Sunday School programs, we need lots of help. If you have Sunday School age children, please think about offering yourself as a teacher and enroll your child(ren) this Fall.
